1972 Ford Falcon 500 Utility

By John Ambrosi, 28 June 2012

Available at present is an opportunity to secure this 1972 XY Falcon 500 Utility. This example is a Falcon 500 spec. It is fitted with correct factory air cond, column auto and saddle bench seat interior. Additionally being a late build it has the very rare column ignition/steering lock. It would suit a daily driver or a great restoration platform, the body could be left alone, the struggle being with whether to leave her as a six or upgrade to GT/GS style power train, hood etc. $20 000 See FOR SALE under "buy auto products online" section of this site.
