Fiat 850sport coupe

I've always loved Italian cars. Even though it's not a powerhouse, there's something about the way it feels and goes around corners. The front transverse leaf spring is all Henry Ford without the body re. Anyhow much too nice and original to tamper with. We gave this beauty a sympathetic overhaul. No really. She'd been sitting outside a workshop when we rescued her. A full service and tune. A good and polish inside and out. What a great result. It's really rewarding to bring these cars back to life....
