Open Day 6/12/08

By John Ambrosi, 1 February 2009

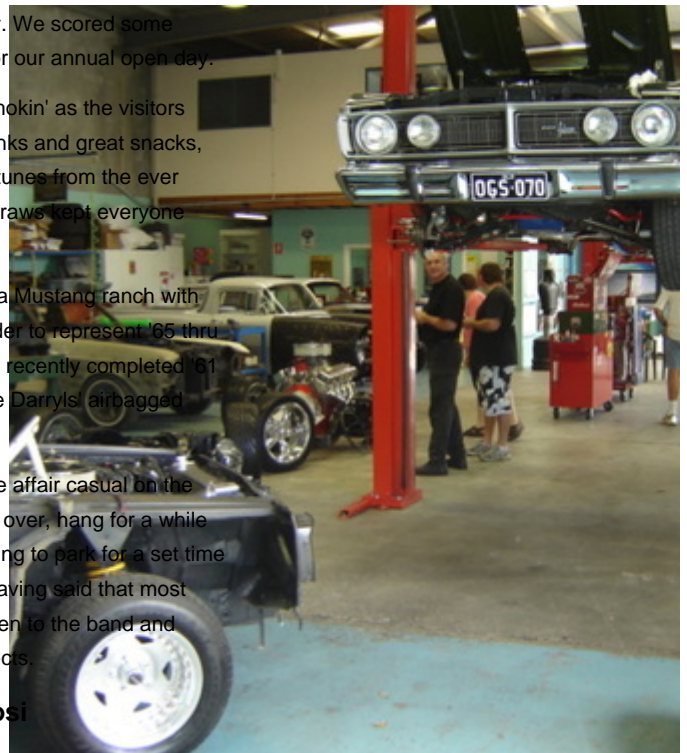

What a scorcher of a day. We scored some great summer weather for our annual open day.

Patrick had the barbie smokin' as the visitors started to roll in. Cold drinks and great snacks, together with some cool tunes from the ever reliable Quick Draw McGraws kept everyone happy in the heat.

The car park looked like a Mustang ranch with every year lined up in order to represent '65 thru to 1970 at one point. Our recently completed '61 Tbird looked great beside Darryls' airbagged example.

We like to keep the whole affair casual on the day. Being able to cruise over, hang for a while and head off without having to park for a set time takes the pressure off. Having said that most hang out, grab a bite, listen to the band and check out the latest projects.
